Article 16 Meetings of the Committee can be classified as regular meetings and extraordinary meetings.

Article 17 The Committee shall hold at least one regular meeting every year, and the notice of the meeting shall be issued to all members three days before each meeting.

Article 18 The Committee may convene extraordinary meetings when necessary. In any of the following circumstances, the chairman of the Committee shall issue a notice to convene a meeting within three days from the occurrence of the following:

- (1) in circumstances deemed necessary by the board of directors;
- (2) in circumstances deemed necessary by the chairman of the Committee;
- (3) when proposed by two or more members of the Committee.

Article 19 The executive body of the Committee shall issue the notice of meeting in writing to each of the Committee members and relevant persons being invited to attend the meeting three days prior to the date of the meeting (except in special circumstances where the requirement of a prior notice is exempted, provided that the chairman of the meeting shall provide explanation at the meeting). The notice of meeting shall contain information on the form, time, venue, duration and agenda of the meeting, time of issuance of the notice, name and contact information of the contact person of the meeting and other relevant information.

Article 20 Upon receipt of the notice, all Committee members shall promptly provide confirmation and relevant replies (including but not limited to the confirmation of attendance, schedule and other matters) via appropriate means.

Article 21 The quorum of a Committee meeting shall be the presence of all members.

Article 22 All members of the Committee shall attend the meeting in person. If a member is unable to attend the meeting in person, each member shall, by signing and submitting a letter of proxy, authorize another member of the Committee to attend and express opinion at the meeting on his/her behalf. Such letter of proxy shall explicitly state the scope and terms of the authorization. Each member may appoint only one other member as his/her proxy to exercise the voting right on his/her behalf. Where a member authorizes two or more other members to exercise the voting right on his/her behalf, such authorization shall be invalid. In addition, no member shall accept an authorization from two or more other members concurrently.

The member attending a meeting on behalf of another member shall exercise the right within the scope of authorization. If a member does not attend a meeting in person or authorize another member to exercise the right on his/her behalf, no proxy shall be submitted and no opinion in writing prior to the meeting, if any, shall be deemed to have been given by him/her.

A member who is unable to attend a meeting in person may also exercise his/her right by submitting in writing his/her opinion in respect to an matter to be discussed, provided that such written opinion shall be submitted to the executive body of the Committee before the meeting at the latest.

Article 23 If a member does not attend a meeting in person or authorize another member to attend such meeting on his/her behalf, no proxy shall be submitted and no opinion in writing prior to the meeting on the occasion, or if each member fails to attend in person three consecutive meetings of the Committee held during an year, each member shall be deemed incapable of performing the duties of the Committee, and the board of directors may replace him/her in accordance with the Charter.

Article 24 Meetings of the Committee shall be presided over by the chairman of the Committee, who may appoint another member to act on his/her behalf when he/she is unable to attend the meeting. If the chairman of the Committee neither performs his/her duties nor designate another member to act on his/her behalf, any member may report about the situation to the board of directors, and the board of directors shall designate another member who is an independent non-executive director to fulfill the duties of the chairman.
